Ah Ah OHH ohh

Chorus

Do you see the world we made by just playing the game
The masterpiece from our own eyes that we tamed
Buried that hatched by the white-pitched fence
Can they tell the red was painted over with white

Watch the lights passing by us did we make it through another day

Civility

Did we see it through the end or were we just lying to ourselves (seeing the blind happy ending)

Pre-Chorus

Will we get our happy ending?
The bodies we buried
The mess we cleaned for my mistakes

We burned London's bridge

Who knew it only take one moment to change the ending of the game
Move your queen and call check

Where street lights this bright
The integration room never,

It the end, it's not the end, it's the end, it's not the end (kind of liek picking flower petals)

Did you watch the news
Did it break your heart
Did you feel sad for the person that's gone
Did you not realize the monster now in front of you

Better watch your back for so it doesn't come for you

What should I do

Times out

I bribed all that's left

But was it enough change the script

Your crying saying it's not time yet

The games not lost yet

1,2,3 and it's gone

Did we burn the lock(key)

Throw away the key??

Did you see me walking past or the puppet

It wasn't hard to believe the "I'm ok" when you say the same

Disclaimer to my life

Watch out for the growing shadows

Didn't it seem strange to say what was on our mind

The words thrown up dose the flames

You can't forget what's done and said

Did we Burn the lock

Throw away the keys we made
Was it my saving grace
Or just ending of the page

Tear stains in the room
I didn't feel that way
Was too late to say
I just wanted the fire to bloom

What do I want to write about
• Felling of falling behind

Bridge?? Chorus??

F

Will it be ok
Will I fall behind

Bd major

The solce I find in my mind
Isn't something strange
Isn't alway right
But I guess I'll be alright
